Winning
from "Knives Don't Have Your Back" Emily Haines
arr. doublewuzzy

To never open a book, always reading a magazine Out, spend, bettin', if it looks like winning, you haven't been Knives don't have your back I'll wait and I'll count and knives

Don't have your back I'll wait and I'll count 'til the last breath we take What we make

...
does n't make sense

What's a wolf without a pack

Open your chest and take the heart from it

We'll make it all right

All right

It's gone

We'll find it

Takes so long

We've got time

All the

All of you
All of us
All of you counting ’til the last breath we take

What we make
doesn't make sense.

What's a wolf

without a pack

Open your chest and take the heart from it.

When you talk

can I tape you?

How'd you get what we don't know?

We don't know how to help

On-ly know how to hound
Winning

Nose to the grind-stone Grind-stone to the ground

Don't even visit that place, they'll sharpen their teeth on your smile I'm glad you didn't All our songs will be lullabies in no time
