THE FRAY
FROM "WALNUT WHALES"

Joanna Newsom
arr. doublewuzzy

\( \text{\textcopyright 2002} \)
First it was what I call quiet then it was biblically loud

You should have seen how they tumbled
You should have seen how they danced

First they leaned as they flew by the seat of their pants
It was not the boilin' fur-
The Fray

C G/B a F G C F G C G/B

trans- It was not that I can-not care less It was not the face of that

C F G C F G C G/B

rever- end place in a horr- i- ble state of un- dress I moved in a way I call

C F G C F G C G/B

mind-less I flatter- ed my- self a move true I carved out a "J" in the spec- ta- tor's

C F G C F G C G/B

fray be- cause that's just a thing that we do Yes I carved out my name in the ninth of the game because that's just a thing that we do

The Fray